Sponsorship Terms and Conditions

By submitting a sponsorship application to the Enock Mathebula Foundation (“the Foundation”), you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to the terms and conditions outlined below. Any breach of these terms may result in rejection, withdrawal, or early termination of sponsorship.

2. Eligibility and Exclusions

The Foundation is committed to rebuilding a well-rounded society through education and positive values. Therefore:

We Sponsor:

- Educational programmes, initiatives, and resources.
- Community development projects.
- Youth empowerment and leadership initiatives.
- Skills development and training programmes.
- Social development projects that uplift families and communities.

We Do Not Sponsor:

- Individuals (personal financial assistance, tuition fees, etc.).
- Entertainment-focused events (such as parties, festivals, concerts).
- Any initiative involving alcohol, gambling, or tobacco.
- Political parties or politically-driven campaigns.
- Religious organizations for faith-based activities (we may support interfaith community development but not doctrinal events).
- Beauty pageants, modelling competitions, or similar activities.
- Initiatives that promote violence, discrimination, or negative moral influence.

Withdrawal or Termination

- The Foundation reserves the right to withhold, withdraw, or terminate any sponsorship at its sole discretion, with or without notice, in cases of non-compliance or breach of these terms.
- Determinations of breach will be made at the sole discretion of the Sponsorship Team and will be final.

Official Communication

- All official sponsorship communication must be in writing via vonani@enockmathebulafoundation.org.
- Only correspondence through this channel will be recognized as binding.

Brand Ambassador Obligations

- Approved sponsors automatically become Brand Ambassadors of the Foundation.
- As a Brand Ambassador, you agree to:
 - Display Foundation branding (e.g., banners/logos provided) on relevant platforms such as websites and events.
 - Promote and support Foundation campaigns and initiatives where reasonably possible.

Conduct and Public Image

- Your conduct (and that of your representatives, if applicable) must reflect positively on the Foundation.
- Offensive, discriminatory, or harmful content, activities, or publications will not be tolerated.
- The Foundation reserves the right to request correction or removal of any material deemed harmful or inappropriate.

Respect Towards Competitors

- While favourable comparisons to competitors are appreciated, all commentary must be respectful and non-offensive.
- Should you be uncertain about the appropriateness of public statements, consult the Sponsorship Team before publishing.

Exclusivity

- Sponsored individuals or organizations may not simultaneously engage in sponsorships, endorsements, or promotional activities with competitors of the Foundation in any form.

Compliance with Law

- All sponsorship activities must comply with the laws of the Republic of South Africa.
- Illegal activity, including but not limited to copyright infringement, hate speech, explicit content, or racial discrimination, will result in immediate termination without notice.

Enforceability

- If any provision of this agreement is found unenforceable, the remaining provisions shall remain valid and binding.
- Any waiver or relaxation of these terms by the Foundation does not limit its right to enforce them strictly at any later stage.
